-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 17 May 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL.                      2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 17 May 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 26-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 26, line 3, it is unclear what is meant by "and a includes". In claims 27-29, there is lack of antecedent basis for "the spacing ... between different adjacent ones of". While claim 26 requires a plurality (at least two) projections, there would need to be at least three projections to start comparing intervals between projections. It is unclear how many projections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §§ 102 and 103

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1723

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 25-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Baker et al. (US 802,254). Claims 27-29 are also alternatively rejected under section 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baker et al. (US 802,254), as their unclear scope makes it impossible to determine whether section 102 or section 103 is the appropriate basis for rejection. Regarding claim 26, Baker ('254) disclose a vessel agitator comprising a plurality of vessel holders (D'), each of said plurality of vessel holders constructed an arranged for removably holding a vessel; a vessel conveyer (B', C', D) that moves said plurality of vessel holders along a path having at least one substantially linear section (see Fig. 1); a vessel contact agitator (projections E<sup>2</sup> and/or the troughs between the projections) constructed an arranged such that when a vessel is held by at least one of said vessel holders, an is conveyed by said vessel conveyer along said path, said vessel contact agitator contacts said vessel at a plurality of locations along said path in a manner that displaces said vessel at each contact location in a direction perpendicular to the direction of the path at that contact location (see page 1, lines 82-91; Figs. 2 and 6). Regarding claim 26, the vessel agitator includes a plurality of projections (E<sup>2</sup>), each located at a corresponding one of said contact locations, and includes a plurality of troughs (the troughs between the projections  $E^2$ ), each located at a corresponding one of said contact locations, said projections and troughs being constructed an arranged such that each of said projections displaces said vessel in a first direction perpendicular to the path at the projection's location of he projection, and such that each of said troughs displaces said vessel in a direction perpendicular to the path at the trough's location, and substantially opposite to the direction that projects adjacent to the trough displace said vessel. Regarding claims 27-29, the spacing between projections and troughs is shown in Fig. 1. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select spacing to optimize agitation in a particular situation. Regarding claim 30, said vessel conveyor comprises a first rotatable wheel (B'), a second rotatable wheel (C') and an endless belt (D) engaged with said first rotatable wheel and second rotatable wheel, wherein said vessel holders are attached to said endless belt.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
